ERPFOCUS

AI2000

EXTENDED PROFILE

OVERVIEW

AI2000 is a leading ERP solution built specifically for the apparel and fashion industry.

Designed around the unique demands of apparel businesses, AI2000 brings inventory, sales, purchasing, production, distribution, financials, and reporting together in one powerful platform.

With decades of industry-focused functionality and a forward-looking approach to automation, data, and AI, AI2000 helps apparel companies operate faster, gain greater visibility, and make smarter decisions.

Its newest layer of AI tools connects directly to leading models including OpenAI, Google Gemini, and Anthropic's Claude, letting teams forecast, report, and make decisions from inside the ERP itself.

More than an ERP, AI2000 is built to be the apparel ERP of the future—connecting every part of the business and helping brands, manufacturers, wholesalers, and distributors stay ahead in an increasingly fast-moving industry.

Ai2000 is trusted by established fashion and lifestyle brands, including Michael Kors, Carolina Herrera, Oscar de la Renta, Tumi, and many other notable brands.
